PROJECTS

CUREMART

A medical-store management system

- The Medical Store web application is a secure and user-friendly platform built using React and Django REST framework. It utilizes React to create a user-friendly UI. API is created using Django which uses a MySQL database for efficient storage, retrieval, and management of medicine data. Authorized users can securely store, manage, and control the data, thanks to the robust authentication system.
- This project is designed and developed with scalability and maintainability in mind with clean architecture and SOLID principles.
- Planned and implemented the whole module with REST APIS
